1 Introduction

This website depicts the issuing of employee identification cards and the supply of those services in a factory. The new employees, technician, manager, identity Card issuing manager, and registered employee are the five characters given to our site. In order to join the factory using this website, new employees must first register and fill out a job application. When a new employee registers on this site, they go to the form's manager and request that he authorize the area where they can make an ID card. Employees who are currently employed at the factory can also access the website and enter their personal information, vacation information, ID cards, and paysheets.
